SUBSTANCE OF MESSAGE!

The Purely Rooseveltian Style of Saying Things

Many Aphorisms That Convey a Vast Lot of Meaning

"I again recommend a law prohibiting all corporations from contributing to the campaign expenses of any party."

"I believe it would be a wrong to prohibit altogether the use of injunctions."

"If men seek to destroy life or property by mob violence, there should be no impairment of the power of the Courts to deal with them in the most summary and effective way possible."

"There is but one safe rule for dealing with black men as with white men; that is, to treat each man, whatever his color, his creed or his social position, with even-handed justice."

"Every colored man should realize that the worst enemy of his race is the Negro criminal, and above all the Negro criminal who commits the crime of rape."

"The crime of rape should always be punished by death; assault with intent to commit rape should be made a capital crime; and punishment should follow immediately upon the heels of the offense."

"Let justice be sure, and swift; but let it be justice under the law, and not the wild and crooked savagery of the mob."

"The free public school, the chance for each boy and girl to get a good elementary education, lies at the foundation of the whole political situation."

"In dealing with both labor and capital, there is but one matter to remember more important than ought else, and that is the infinite harm done by preachers of mere discontent."

"The triumph of the mob is just as evil a thing as the triumph of the plutocracy, and to have escaped one danger avails nothing if we succumb to the other."

"The horrors incident to the employment of young children in factories or at work anywhere are a blot on our civilization."

"The Interstate Commerce Law has rather amusingly falsified the predictions, both of those who asserted that it would ruin the railroads and of those who asserted that it did not go far enough and would accomplish nothing."

"The best way to avert the very undesirable move for the Governmental ownership of railroads is to secure such adequate control and regulation of the great interstate common carriers as will do away with the evils which give rise to agitation against them."

"There is every reason why, when next our system of taxation is revised, the National Government should impose a graduated inheritance tax, and, if possible, a graduated income tax."

"American citizenship should be conferred on the citizens of Porto Rico."

"All we have a right to question is the man's conduct."

"Especially do we need to remember our duty to the stranger within our gates."

"We have as much to learn from Japan as Japan has from us."

"We should, as a Nation, do everything in our power for the cause of honorable peace."

"The United States Navy is the surest guarantor of peace which the country possesses."

"To stop building ships for one year means that for that year the Navy goes back, instead of forward."

"It is neither safe nor proper to leave the question of polygamy to be dealt with by the several states."

"When men and women cease to regard a worthy family life as the best life worth living, evil days for the Commonwealth are at hand."

"No man, no woman, can shirk the primary duties of life, whether for love of ease and pleasure, or for any other cause, and retain his or her self-respect."

"In my judgment, the whole question of marriage and divorce should be relegated to the authority of the National Congress."

"There must soon be a revision of them, (currency laws,) because to leave them as they are means to incur liability of business disaster."

"I most earnestly hope the bill to provide a lower tariff for or else absolute free trade in Philippine products will become a law."

"This Nation owes no more imperative duty to itself and mankind than the duty of managing the affairs of all the islands under the American flag so as to make it evident that it is in every way to their advantage that the flag should fly over them."

"The United States wishes nothing of Cuba except that it shall prosper morally and materially, and wishes nothing of the Cubans save that they shall be able to preserve order among themselves and therefore to preserve their independence."

Mott Ayres, State Fire Marshal, and Clem J. Whitmore, his attorney, have begun an investigation into the burning of the John Orr and James Stegar tobacco factories at Princeton.

Near Owingsville Sam Stone, son of Grifton Stone, with his brother-in-law, Tom Rallins, went rabbit hunting. Rallins' gun was accidentally discharged and shot Stone's leg off just below the knee. Stone's leg was amputated, but he died soon after.

A report from the office of Public Roads, a branch of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, shows that there are 57,137 miles of public road in the state of Kentucky, of which 1,408 miles were surfaced with gravel and 8,078 with stone, making in all 9,486 miles of improved road.

At the convention of Burley tobacco men at Winchester a resolution was offered and adopted condemning in strong language the burning of the Trust tobacco stemmeries at Princeton, and other recent outrages by the "raiders." The sense of the convention is to fight the Trust is an honorable way.

The Burley Tobacco Society, comprising twenty-three counties in Kentucky and one in Ohio, met at Winchester Tuesday and arranged to pool the tobacco of the district. Fifteen cents per pound was fixed as the minimum price for an average crop. Each county is to receive its own tobacco, grade and finance the same.

WHAT YOU WANT

What you want in Horse Blankets is strength. Certainly you want them handsome, too; but the horse is such a rough creature on his clothes that he will make your pocket-book thin if you buy poor blankets.

5-A Horse Blankets are known the world over as the best and strongest. We sell 'em.

Also, you will want a good pair of Leggings. We have a splendid line on hand at very low prices.

We have a limited number of beautiful souvenirs, and are going to give them to those who send us a postal card with their address written plainly upon it, together with Postoffice address and the name of the newspaper in which they read this ad. Send in your card early so as to get your name down for one.

River News

The gage marks 9.4 and falling.
The Jim Wood is laid up at Parkersburg.
The Tacoma will be up for Pomeroy today.
Altogether 2,000,000 bushels of coal were shipped South from Louisville.
The Chilo will pass down for Cincinnati during the next twenty-four hours.
The Pittsburgh harbor is again rapidly filling up with coal, awaiting another rise.
The excursion steamer Princess is being overhauled at the Queen City Marine Ways.
Heavy towboats with empties will not reach Pittsburgh on the present water in the Upper Ohio.
Queen City is overdue going down and will probably lay up at Cincinnati when she arrives there for higher water.
